

The School of Education

Earn a Master's degree in your fifth year... even while employed as a teacher!

Master of Arts in Teaching FIFTH-YEAR OPTION

The Program:

- Designed to fit the busy schedule of teachers
- Summer, evening, and online courses
- Small classes of committed professionals
- Classes taught by recognized leaders in the field
- Tailor your own course of study

With only seven (7) more courses, you can earn a Master of Arts in Teaching degree. The MAT program is designed specifically for

Rider education graduates who want to expand their professional teaching knowledge. Candidates can transfer nine (9) of their undergraduate credits into the 30-credit master's program. The remaining seven (7) courses are listed below:

CURR 531: Curriculum Development and Design (3 credits)

CURR 538: Curricular and Instructional Improvement (3 credits)

EDAD 521: Research and Data-Based Decision Making in Schools (3 credits)

Elective (3 credits)

Elective (3 credits)

Elective (3 credits)

Elective (3 credits)

For more information:

Contact MAT@rider.edu

APPROVED BY CAMPUS LIFE

